The Portable Venus Altar

Begin With a Statue or Image of A Goddess

Cayelin received this statue as a Gift for her 40th Birthday Venus Return in 1996.

In 2010 it became the central feature of a Venus Altar during the age 56 Venus Return.

This is a bronze Tara 8 inches tall.

The Portable Venus Altar

In a Basket

This Basket was a wedding Gift in 2006.

It is what made this Venus altar portable.

The Statue is placed in the Basket along with the Vestments. From left to right each chakra is represented.

Placing the Vestments around the Goddess before her Robe is Added

The Portable Venus Altar

The Vestments Adorn the Statue Or Are Placed Around In The Basket With Her

This image shows the removal of her makeshift crown, shown sitting between the divination cards.

These Vestments are put into a box out of site until Venus Rises. The Tarot and Goddess Cards or whatever you have – can help the journaling process providing additional insights into each chakra gate as it relates to your journey.

The Portable Venus Altar

The Vestments Adorn the Statue
Or Are Placed Around In The Basket With Her

As the Vestments are removed
She eventually is stripped naked and bare for her journey in the underworld.

The Statue can even be laid down to signify her having died while she travels with the Sun.

Four Questions?

What would it take for me to completely release and let go all the ways I do not 100% trust myself and my connection to spirit?
