2020 Sky Mysteries Cosmic Vision For A New Year A New Decade A New Earth A New You

With Cayelin K Castell

Our lives, our past and our future are tied to the Sun, the Moon and the Stars...

We humans have seen the atoms constituting all of nature and the forces that sculpted this work. And we, who embody the local eyes and ears and thoughts and feelings of the cosmos, have begun at least to wonder about our origins — star stuff contemplating the stars, organized collections of ten billion, billion, billion atoms, contemplating the evolution of nature, tracing that long path where it arrived as consciousness here on the planet Earth...

We speak for Earth. Our obligation to survive and flourish is owed not just to ourselves but also to that cosmos ancient and vast from where we spring! We are one species. We are star stuff harvesting star light.

Carl Sagan, 1934 -1996
