

Neptune Generations from 1901 to 2026

Zero Degrees is indicating when Neptune is crossing into the sign. 29 Degrees indicates when Neptune is returning to the previous sign during its retrograde phase. Neptune crosses Zero Degrees three times including the day before or the day it returns to 29 degrees of the previous sign. Highlighted in Light Blue are the Water Signs and in Dark Blue are the In Service to Spirit or Mutable Signs (forming squares or oppositions).

The first number 00 shows the degrees and the second number 56 shows the minutes. There are 30 degrees in a sign and 60 minutes in a degree.

If you have planets, angles or nodes in Pisces, Gemini, Virgo or Sagittarius you will go through a Neptune transit during these years. Knowing the sign and degree will help you locate when that is happening for you. Get a Free natal chart here <http://alabe.com/freechart/>. If you want the exact dates of your Neptune transit I will soon have one and two year transits charts available on my website.
