

2019 March Celestial Timings

by Cayelin K Castell

This month's Timings are incomplete. I will add more if time presents but with two in person events, one at my home that just ended on Feb 27 I didn't have time to do more so going with something is better than nothing.

Imagination is one of our most powerful medicine tools in the co-creative process as described by John Lennon in his song "Imagine"

The first step to better times is to Imagine them.

Italicized below is a statement I wrote back in 2011, that feels like a declaration to what is still possible if we join together through the power of love to change and heal everything and fits with what we imagine as a way to create a new reality!

The revolutionary energies sweeping the Earth right now suggest a growing awareness and willingness to imagine a New World where everyone has a valued voice. More and more people are joining together and imagining what it would be like to be live in a world free from oppression and injustice – where all life is equally valued, competition is no longer the driving force and we all live in peace, plenty and harmonious illumination.

The only date in March of 2019 we have a Mayan Jaguar Day is March 14.

Thoughts become real...Imagine your successful enterprise over and over, and it will come to pass.
If you entertain your fears, you will bring them into being.
Such is the Law.

March Sky Observing Highlights

March is when the Sun crosses over the Aries Equinox point marking the Spring Equinox in the Northern Hemisphere and the Autumnal Equinox in the Southern Hemisphere.

The constellation of the Crab (a.k.a Cancer) is prominent this month. The Moon passes by here on March 16 and 17.

The Sacred Hoop of Stars (as they were known to the Lakota Sioux and other Plains Indians) are high in the sky after Sunset. This configuration of stars is what astronomer's sometimes call the 'winter hexagon' though the Sacred Hoop includes the Pleiades on the outer edge rather than Aldebaran, the eye of the Bull. The top star of the Hoop this month is Capella and moving clockwise includes the Pleiades, Rigel, Sirius, and Procyon, and Pollux and Castor.

The Moon moves through the Sacred Hoop this month from March 10 (Pleiades) to March 14 (Castor and Pollux)

The Ecliptic (plane of the solar system and the path the planets travel) and the Milky Way (plane of the galaxy) intersect near the middle of this hoop of Stars forming a cross within a circle. The place of the intersection occurs at what is called the Galactic Edge, where we look out beyond our Galaxy. The center point of the cross is located between the feet of the Twins and the horns of the Bull. This intersection is the place in the sky where the summer solstice (0 degree Cancer) is currently located.

Orion and the Hyades are located inside the Hoop and are easily spotted this time of year. Interestingly, the Mayans perceived the sword of Orion as a sacred fire of creation inside a fire pit. Modern astronomers have discovered this is a place where new stars are being birthed!

Heaven's Gate is a configuration of Stars that form a great equilateral triangle with two stars that form the outer edge of the Sacred Hoop already mentioned and they are Sirius and Procyon. The third star is Betelgeuse marking the shoulder of Orion. These stars were known as 'Heavens Gate' to Alaskan Shaman's and represent another version of an entry point or entrance into incarnation.

Another stellar triangle is also becoming more visible this month rising later in the evening marking the tail of the Lion and featuring the bright star Denebola, 43 light years away.

Reminder: All times given are Pacific Time unless otherwise noted. Also all the events listed in the Celestial Timings have a minimum three day impact including the day before and the day after. In many cases, the planetary effects extend into weeks, months and even years. Noting the sign and degree of the aspects and planets helps you to know if these events are directly affecting your own natal chart. The Celestial Timings then are a great guide to knowing how these energies affect us collectively but also when to pay extra close attention to the personal initiations we all go through.

All our life activities are structured by the day, month, year cycles but we forget that these cycles are founded on astronomical data used by astrologers since very ancient times. ~ Cycles of Becoming by Alexander Ruperti

Venus

Venus enters Aquarius on March 1 as she approaches the 4th Gate 4th Chakra exact on March 2. Venus in Aquarius is about a revolution in consciousness assisting in bringing about innovative, radical change fulfilling the Aquarian Dispensation that says everyone has the right to take responsibility for their own spiritual and evolutionary path. This means we do not need anyone to intercede on our behalf. We have the power to have our own direct connection with the divine and it is up to us to take responsibility in ways that empower our direct connection with spirit.

This is where Inanna releases her golden breast plate known as 'come man come' relinquishing all the ways she no longer loves herself. The 4th chakra is our life force generator connecting us with the energy of the cosmos and governs the emotional realms including love, kindness, generosity, compassion, and the shadowed aspects of lust, fraud, indecision, anxiety, longing, impartiality, arrogance, incompetence, discrimination and defiance. The best approach in ceremonially releasing any distortions you may have around loving yourself or others is to follow your heart, listen to your heart knowing and make your choices from there.

It may also be useful to work with the color green to encourage harmony, peace and well-being. Wearing green clothes, eating green foods, and working with green stones including malachite, jade, emerald, peridot, aventurine, green fluorite, green tourmaline, green jasper, green agate are also helpful. This month you may want to create an altar that symbolizes a healthy whole heart and give thanks for the purity of heart you already possess.

This Venus Gate in Aquarius includes working with innovative revolutionary energies for evolutionary purposes. Aquarius is also an archetypal energy that values objective awareness.

What can you become more aware of within yourself connected to the mysteries of the heart. How you love yourself or not, how you value yourself or not, how you love and value others or not?

This Venus gate is especially important for anyone turning a multiple of 8 (16, 24, 32, 40, 48, 56, 64, 72, 80 and 88 between Nov 1, 2018 and June 9, 2020) as you are in an eight year Venus Return Initiation cycle for the entire 584 day cycle.

Understanding and working with the intent of this cycle is valuable for anyone desiring a greater conscious connection with the divine feminine aspect they are investigating this time around.
